Congratulations Virginia!

Our Ladies Auxiliary President, Virginia Williams, was awarded the Christ the King Medal during Mass at Mobile's Cathedral-Basilica of the Immaculate Conception on 25 November. The medal is awarded each year to an extraordinary volunteer selected by each parish in the archdiocese. Virginia's time and talents touch so many facets of our Church's life, besides her great leadership of our auxiliary. The Catholic Patriot salutes Virginia on her award of this honor.

Sir Knights Parading for Christmas

The color corps supported the cities of Enterprise and Andalusia at their annual Christmas parades on 27 and 29 November. The participating Sir Knights and family members battled a frigid Enterprise night while appreciating a warmer evening in Andalusia. Many thanks to Color Corps Commander Larry Hitchcock for organizing and leading our appearance. Special thanks to our District Deputy and Past Faithful Navigator Jay Myers for his just-in-time 5th wheel work so we didn't have to pull the float in regalia.

Happy Birthday
